

SUMMER INSTITUTE ON CLIMATE CHANGE AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

UMKC SCHOOL OF EDUCATION, CONTINUING EDUCATION

A Project of the Global and Multicultural Education Center

This project is made possible by funding from EPA Region 7.

June 2-June 6, 2008

Registration Fee $75.00 per hour

COURSE AGENDA

CLIMATE CHANGE, MYTH OR REALITY

June 2, 2008	9:00-12:00	Global Environmental Change, Jimmy O. Adegoke, Ph.D, Department of Geoscience, UMKC
	1:00-3:00	Climate Change and consequences Professor Robert Glicksman, Distinguished Professor of Law, University of Kansas
June 3, 2008	9:00 10:30	Regional Impacts of Climate Change
	10:30-12:00	US and Regional Energy Options for Addressing Climate Change, Craig S. Volland, President, Spectrum Technologies
	1:00-3:00	Richard Dawson, Science teacher and director of Environmental Lab. "Impact of Climate Change on Natural Ecosystems, Plants, Animals"

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

June 4, 2008	9:00- 12:00	Effective Teaching and relevant strategies and Curriculum design - Ronda Miles, Director of Curriculum and Instruction & Professional Development; University Academy.
June 4, 2008	1:00-3:00	Continuation of strategies, Ronda Miles
June 5, 2008	9:00-12:00	Examining Available teaching plans & strategies & Designing individual or group plans Joyce Cox, and Paul DeBarthe Social studies and curriculum development specialists
	1:00-3:00	Richard Dawson, Science teacher and director of Environmental Lab.
June 6, 2008	9:00- 12 and 1:00-3:00	Demonstration and evaluation Richard Dawson, Joyce Cox, Paul De Barthe

For information please contact UMKC 816/235-1125
or G.A.M.E. 816/753-2372

Summer Institute location: Anita Gorman Conservation Discovery Center for duration of project.